MASS MEDIA IGNORE ANTI-WHITE RAMPAGE!

The Trap Inn, Oldham, wrecked by an frenzied attack by a mob of more than 120 Asian racist thugs

A car set on fire by another Asian gang in Oldham! Is this the future you want?

EXCLUSIVE

"For God's sake do something before someone gets killed and Oldham blows up like a volcano!"

This is the plea from local people in the troubled northern town after yet another anti-white rampage by an Asian race-hate mob which stormed through the town centre. White shoppers were punched and kicked. Shop windows were smashed. Police officers and vehicles were pelted with missiles.

Most serious of all was a ferocious attack on the Trap Inn, which was completely wrecked by a mob more than 120. Gangs of Asian thugs also attacked small groups of young whites later in the evening. Needless to say, the serious disturbances were ignored by the national TV and papers.

NEW LABOUR, NEW TRAFFIC JAMS

New Labour won huge numbers of votes at the last election by promising an 'effective' transport policy. But four years later, the mess they inherited from the Tories is, if anything, even worse.

The road system is now in its worst condition in modern times, and the latest official survey shows even essential road maintenance falling badly behind schedule. Perhaps this, like sky-high fuel tax, is another John Prescott trick to force drivers off the road!

Meanwhile the desperately needed modernisation of the London tube system is bogged down, and a joint failure by the Government and the police to deal effectively with crime and anti-white racism is putting many city-dwellers off using public transport.

The mutually hostile segments of what was once British Rail are blaming each other for the continual rail disasters and near misses, and for a 10 per cent fare hike. To top it all, Prescott's latest meddling in the affairs of Railtrack knocked more than £1 billion of the company's shares in just two days.

All the talk of 'joined up policy making' has come to nothing. All we've got instead is joined up traffic jams. With a disastrous record like that, the fact that Blair & Co look set to be re-elected only goes to show just what a pathetic shambles Her Majesty's Tory Opposition have become. It's enough to drive you to drink, but it's probably quicker to walk to the pub!

OLDHAM: "READY TO BLOW!"

The Oldham violence flared after the area's irresponsible Labour ex-Euro-MP, Glynn Ford, addressed a rally by the Communist extremist Anti-'Nazi' League. Various speakers wound up the crowd and many of those present then took part in the anti-white pogrom.

The Trap is the second pub to have been targeted by anti-white thugs in the town in recent weeks. The Queens on Manchester Street was attacked by a dozen fanatics armed with petrol bombs. Innocent regulars, who had done nothing whatsoever to provoke the violence, were lucky to escape with their lives as the racist gang hurled the petrol bombs into the pub.

The Queens was badly damaged but has now been repaired.

Pubs are a keystone of white working class community life, and attacks like this demoralise and frighten the whole community.

The effect – and the aim – is ethnic cleansing. Sure enough, many white residents are now trying to move out of the area.

But running away isn't the answer. The right thing to do is to organise to demand Rights for Whites. Oldham is still 80% white, so if white people just stand up and unite, the minority of Muslim extremists would quickly slink back into their mosques. All it needs is a bit of white pride and white unity – which is why the British National Party will be fielding candidates in both Oldham seats in the General Election.

● In the General Election, the party's National Chairman, Nick Griffin, is standing in Oldham West. BNP candidate in Oldham East and Saddleworth is popular local man and Organiser Mick Treacy.

NEW LABOUR'S FANTASY NHS!

The number of hospital beds in the National Health Service has halved in the last 20 years! There were 361,670 when Margaret Thatcher took power in 1979 and, with Tory Blair taking up the axe where the last Conservative government left off, the number has now slumped to just 186,290.

The shocking figure emerged in a statement by New Labour Health Minister John Denham.

What is needed to provide the desperately needed extra staff is effective action to cut bureaucratic waste and to channel funds wasted on asylum-seekers and Europe into our own health service. Bringing in cheap, poorly-trained nurses from places like the Philippines is only making things worse by allowing health authorities and the Government to get away with paying lower wages.

This in turn forces even more highly qualified British nurses, who don't need language courses and relocation grants, to leave the profession.

The only answer to the health service crisis is to pay decent wages to qualified clinical nurses, especially experienced consultant nurses. Attracting back the huge number of ex-nurses with school-aged children by opening wards and theatres for routine operations during term-time has also proven a highly successful experiment and could bring waiting lists down substantially if adopted nationwide.

But New Labour prefers instead to fiddle the statistics in an attempt to con voters into thinking that things aren't so bad. Waiting lists have been 'massaged' down by various tricks including:

● Moving the goalposts for "waiting for admission to hospital in emergencies." Commonsense says that you're waiting for admission once you're at the hospital. But in New Labour's Fantasy NHS you're not there until the forms have been filled out and you've been admitted formally. So they put newly arrived patients on trolleys and don't do the paperwork and, hey presto! They're not there! Blair & Co keep those waiting lists down!

● Moving the goalposts for "waiting to see a surgeon." Commonsense says that you're waiting to see a surgeon once your doctor has said you need to see a surgeon. But in New Labour's Fantasy NHS each surgeon has a waiting list of a certain number of patients. But when your doctor refers you, you don't go on that waiting list, because it only goes up to something like 300 patients. Instead, you go on a waiting list to get on the waiting list – and that doesn't count at all. You're not even there until you get to the top and then get transferred to the bottom of the official list to see the surgeon. Hey presto! You and your medical complaint don't exist. Welcome to New Labour's Health Service Magic Roundabout!

ELECTION IMPACT FUND! - £4,000 TARGET

The Election Impact Fund will be used to help the BNP in the forthcoming General Election make an extra impact in several key parts of the country:

■ Inner East London. White flight makes it unusually hard to build a financially sound base, but the remaining whites are more likely than ever to vote BNP;

■ Outer East London. An area of immense future potential, where we still need that extra push to get properly established;

■ Leicester. A generous new member has offered to pay the £500 deposit for a second seat in a city where white working class voters are disgusted by Keith Vaz. Help is needed paying for the election address.

■ Lancashire. We need to fight a second seat in powderkeg Oldham - a town where we didn't even have a proper organisation not long ago. We also want to throw extra resources at another seat where we're looking for the best ever BNP parliamentary vote in the North West.

To achieve these 'icing on the cake' extras and make the most out of the coming election, the BNP must raise £4,000 within the next month. Any later will be too late, so please join all other BNP supporters like you taking action today. Please make cheques/PO's payable to 'British National Party' or 'British Heritage', and send to: PO Box 51, Oundle, PE8 6WQ.

TAXING US BLIND! FISHERMEN GUTTED!

Yet another joint New Labour/European Union stealth tax is hitting the elderly and the poor more than anyone else. People needing spectacles will have to pay an extra £20 a pair from June, as the taxman is slapping VAT on the dispensing charge!

VAT is a European Union tax, although the British government receives the money, it is merely acting as a middle man as the money goes straight back out in huge payments (over 1.8 million pound an hour!) to the EU bureaucracy!

All that matters to the politicians and the bureaucrats is money, and they are sucking hard-working people dry for it!

A cosy relationship for the bureaucrats and politicians, but another blow to Britons in need struggling to make ends meet. Perhaps the plan is to discourage people from having glasses so they can't see how much their council tax bills have gone up!

THE BNP AND RACE

The BNP is best known for its policy on race and immigration. The BNP opposes immigration into the UK from whatever its source. For forty years this immigration has primarily been coloured. But it is not an issue of colour since the party is equally opposed to immigration from Albania and Eastern Europe.

The BNP is not a 'race supremacist' party. The BNP does not claim that any one race is superior to any other, simply that they are different. The party merely wishes to preserve those differences which make up the rich tapestry of human kind.

Neither has the BNP any connection with 'race hate'. Indeed it is the multi-racists who are the haters since it is they who are determined to destroy all cultures and all races to achieve a multi-racial mish-mash.

To protect and preserve the ethnic and cultural integrity of the British people — and of others too, the party believes in separation.

Only in a Black society will Black kids find true Black role models. Only in a Muslim society will Muslims find their religion free from Western influence. All peoples need a homeland. The British too need a homeland.

Nor are the BNP 'racist'. Indeed, the BNP are resisting the racist colonisation of Britain in which the native people of Britain are having their culture suppressed, their land colonised and are being discriminated against on racial grounds.

To sum up, the BNP is fighting for the very right to exist of not just the British, but of all peoples.

Fishermen in the cod fishing ports on the east coast of England have reacted angrily to the news that the Government is making only £6 million available to cushion the devastating blow to the fishing industry from the EU quota cuts.

The money will only pay to decommission three trawlers, although fishermen and fishing communities all around the country are being crippled by the fact that our boats are being forbidden to fish our own waters.

The ban is 'necessary' in order to make up for the looting of our fish stocks by Spanish trawlers and the destruction of the marine ecosystem by Danish industrial fishing operations to make animal feed.

Meanwhile, Scottish fishermen are getting a slightly more respectable £20 million. The difference is, regrettably, encouraging Scottish and English fishermen to regard each other as enemies, instead of standing together to oppose the Government's disgraceful sell-out of their combined, British, fishing industry interest to Europe.

In the long run, the only thing that can save North Sea fish stocks and our fishing communities is to reclaim the waters as British territory, and to give quotas to genuinely British vessels only. But the only party which will do that is the British National Party.

The fishing industry is in crisis!

UNDERCOVER SCOOP OF THE MONTH!

A recent Ofsted Report about exclusions and expulsions among various ethnic groups has concluded that some teacher treat black children more harshly than white of Asian pupils.

Blacks, for example, are three times more likely to be expelled.

Various explanations have been put forward, but none of them has involved the possibility that underlying racial behavioural differences may be involved.

DIFFERENT APPROACH?

The question is whether black Caribbean and black African pupils in some way, due to their genetic ancestry and country of origin, sufficiently different to require different types of discipline, a different regime (e.g. harsher punishment), in fact a different approach?

I decided to put the question to the Commission for Racial Equality (CRE), and received a somewhat frosty response from the lady at the other end of the telephone! She told me that the CRE doesn't even accept that there are average group differences between, say, Africans and whites.

"We take a wider view [about black under achievement] ... racism may be an element but there are a whole host of things, like poor learning environment, poor background, one parent families, and since black people are more likely to come from this type of impoverished background, they are more likely to under perform".

There was no explanation as to why they had poorer living conditions in the first place, she said she didn't know why — except perhaps because some of them couldn't speak English, which went against them in the employment market.

LIBERAL IGNORANCE

The CRE would not even consider Africans (and people of African descent born in the UK) to be, as a group, different, and with different average abilities to white people as a group. Except of course, when it comes to certain sports, where their obvious average superiority is presented with relish rather than embarrassment.

One of the country's leading experts on race and education is Professor Tony Sewell, an educational psychologist at Leeds University, and also a regular columnist in the black newspaper The Voice.

Freedom Reporter Phil Edwards goes undercover!

In the Daily Telegraph of March 1st Prof Sewell is quoted as saying that "The biggest barrier is the widespread refusal of teachers to speak about race, often because they are scared it could bring down the racial equilibrium in the school.

Ofsted too, seems unwilling to tackle issues behind the exclusions..." In the current climate of fear of Thought Crime and the Thought Police, reminiscent of the 1930s Soviet Union Stalinist era, there's little wonder that this situation has arisen.

EXCUSES

When I asked Professor Sewell, who is himself black, whether he considered that this plight of black school children might have something to do with racial difference he had a good laugh at first but then seemed to be at a loss for words "...I mean.... well er.... yeah.... I don't know... maybe there was back in the 1960s when they were put in educationally sub normal units..."

He went on "This current Ofsted report is about different punishments metered out by teachers, for the same misbehaviour".

RESEARCH

He explained that the very latest research showed that black children of African origin in UK primary schools in the earliest stages of education were indeed 5 to 6 points ahead of children of other ethnic groups in English and arithmetic, but when they encountered day school their scores went down dramatically, year on year.

"I think this nature/nurture thing is so close, it's impossible to pull them apart; people who go in their camps and say I just believe in genes or I just believe in social factors are wrong" he said.

He went on "If I was a geneticist now, I would agree that what you have got here is a case of black children who have probably got an advantage intellectually over their white counterparts and what happens is it gets unscrambled in the experience of school, and far from arguing against you in terms of the need for looking at genetics we have a group here who have been genetically undermined — and we have good evidence to prove that".

DEBATE

My own view is that it might be due to a genetic predisposition to earlier maturation in these groups.

Professor Sewell was very forthcoming and I'm grateful for that.

He also said he often had debates about racial differences — perhaps he would like to enlighten us more on this topic by contacting Freedom. Evidently, there seems to be more to this than Ofsted dares mention.

LAWRENCE COP ON RAPE CHARGE!

A police sergeant with 28 years under his belt, and who was awarded an MBE, was charged with raping a black community worker. Peter Solly, 47, was praised recently for his police work in race relations. He is only the latest of a string of politically correct cops to end up in disgrace.

Peter Solly denied nine charges of raping a 50-year-old Caribbean women.

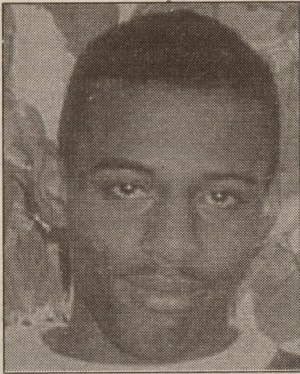

He also denied perjury during the Lawrence inquiry hearings.

Sergeant Peter Solly was a 'go-between' for police and the Lawrence family. He often talked about 'a canteen culture of racism' in the Met. Even a chapter of the infamous McPherson report praised Peter Solly's dedication to race and community relations.

According to various so-called left-wing radicals, rape as such, isn't a sex crime, or at least the motivation isn't.

Rape is about power and violation of a person's rights - and is in fact a hate crime. Or, as in this case, a racial attack!

SELL-OUT IN NORTHERN IRELAND

The Sinn Fein president Gerry Adams was once the commander of the IRA!

This is nothing new of course, but until now, it could never be proved conclusively, despite the overwhelming circumstantial evidence stating that he was obviously responsible for ordering the bombing, killing and torture of both Catholics and Protestants in the IRA's relentless crusade for International Communism in Northern Ireland.

Gerry Adams

However, a disgruntled former associate and terrorist bomber, Dolours Price, who was convicted with her sister Marian of leading an IRA bombing campaign in London, March 1973, said at a republican rally that Gerry Adams was her commanding officer. Dolours Price was said to be 'disillusioned' about the direction Sinn Fein is taking and decided to 'speak from the heart' at the rally. She said: "It was too much to listen to people now saying they weren't in the IRA." Her sister has become a high-profile spokesman for the 32 County Sovereignty Committee, which security sources say is the political wing of the so-called Real IRA.

As the IRA, 'Real' or old, have yet to give up a single bullet, in this so-called peace process, it is very tempting to assume that this is just another propaganda ploy by the republicans to hoodwink the world that Sinn Fein is committed to peace, and that they don't have anything to do with these republican renegades causing havoc again on the mainland with renewed bombing campaigns. If Gerry Adams and Sinn Fein are as squeaky clean as they pretend to be why then don't they arrange for the massive stockpiles of weapons and bomb-making equipment the 'old IRA' has to be handed over pronto? Freedom says: Don't hold your breath while waiting!

The price we pay for appeasing terrorism: Innocent Britons killed in bomb blasts!

ASYLUM SEEKER PROSTITUTION TRADE GROWING!

African criminals are smuggling black asylum-seekers into Britain, girls as young as 12, and then kidnapping them from the care of the social services into a life of vice and crime. The girls are apparently forced into prostitution by the threats of Voodoo curses if they don't comply. African girls have had locks of their hair cut, and bits of finger nail taken. The terrified girls are then smuggled to red-light areas of Europe.

Det Sgt Andy Cummings, of Sussex Police, said: "They control these females with voodoo. It sounds bizarre but there was a lot of control. That's why the girls just disappeared."

Up to 40 West African girls had disappeared from social services in Sussex alone. According to the charity, End Child Prostitution and Trafficking, 61 children went missing in Sussex. Some are thought to be Chinese, and 43 children from other areas are at risk because their cases fit the profile of victims who have been trafficked.

The lucrative asylum-seeker prostitution trade

Of course, tricking foreign guest workers into a life of vice is nothing new. In Israel, white 'gentile' East European women work 16-hour shifts, every day of the week, in 'illegal' brothels as sex slaves for pervers to abuse, after being lured with the promise of well paid work. The Israeli government knows about this scandal but turns a blind eye to it! The 'Russian' Mafia's network of contacts throughout Europe ensures that many East European female 'guest-workers' simply end up in enforced prostitution.

The more bogus asylum-seekers we allow in, the more innocent children and women will end up being used as sex slaves by well-organised criminal gangs! If anyone is to blame for this it is Tony Blair and his cronies in the European Union!

IN OUR POSTBAG

A Black Queen? That day won't be too far away!

"The evidence of Left-wing thinking in the Met is in fact ample. Superintendent Ali Dizaei has denounced in the Guardian William Hague and 'the Right-wing lobby' for expressing concern about the Macpherson Report. Brian Paddick, the Met's most senior homosexual officer, has likewise taken the Conservative leader to task in the Financial Times.

John Grieve of the Racial and Violent Crime Task Force has questioned the employment practices of such institutions as the Church of England and

TO THE POINT

Ford, even though policemen usually do not address these matters in democratic societies. Paul Wilson of the Black Police Association - whose charter states that 'the term black does not denote skin colour, but is used as a political term to emphasise the common experience of individuals opposing the effects of racism' - talks of the need for whites to be 'coerced' or 'compelled', no less to give up power. Such attitudes portend a real danger - that victims of particular kinds of crime are going to be given preferential treatment. And it will be determined according to high lobby group shouts loudest."

Daily Telegraph editorial 27th March

"Men do not need a Minister; they need the Home Secretary, Jack Straw, to tell his civil servants that it is unjust for divorced fathers to be compelled to pay for their children's upbringing, without being given the automatic right of access to those children. They need recognition that it is unjust for men accused to rape to be named while those accusers who have made up the allegations are afforded anonymity...

Boys need a strong disciplinary framework. They thrive on regular competitive sport. But both are often denied them.

All little boys play that sort of game. Yet thanks to post-feminist prejudice against their natural male behaviour they find themselves labelled as trouble-makers."

David Thomas, writing in the Daily Mail on New Labour plans for a Minister for Men. 13th March.

LATE LAST MONTH

While the BNP leadership held back the publication date of both the national BNP publications, Identity and Freedom, to be able to include the successful North of Britain rally in the activity reports, thus being able to avoid it taking up a large amount of space a long time after it happened in the April issue, a disaster then happened. The usual printer for Freedom went bankrupt!

A hunt was then on, lasting ten days, to find a replacement printer. These types of printers are very rare, and finding one that would print our material was long and exhaustive. Identity was out round about the 10th of March, as promised. But both publications are distributed by a national literature run, and holding two in one month is too expensive.

Thus both publications have to be distributed at the same time, if one is late, it delays the other! We have now found a replacement printer, and we hope to avoid the same situation in the future.

THE 'BENEFITS' OF MULTICULTURALISM

The enthusiasts for multiculturalism in Leicester are also having a hard time convincing local people that the latest example of the cultural enrichment associated with Asian immigration – the revival of tuberculosis – is a good thing.

Dozens of pupils at Crown Hills Community College in the city have gone down with a virulent strain of the disease that once accounted for one-in-four deaths in Britain.

The pupils of crown Hills are 96% Asian. White mothers in the city are complaining that TB vaccination jabs are being rationed and given to Asian children and babies only, even though white kids can catch the disease just as easily as anyone else.

At one time TB used to account for one in four deaths. It was effectively wiped out in this country, but now, thanks to multiculturalism we have it back! Ah, the diversity!

SOLDIERS 'SICKENED' BY CULL HORROR

Freedom has received the following horrific eye-witness account of the horror of the government/Ministry of Agriculture mass slaughter policy from a soldier serving with the Green Howards, currently stationed in Worcester TA barracks and helping with the slaughter operation in the area: "We were briefed that we'd be 'clearing up' – burning and/or burying carcasses of animals humanely destroyed by trained vets and slaughtermen. But that's all turned out to be more 'spin' and propaganda. What we're actually doing is 'mopping up' – killing animals they've left behind or can't be bothered to finish off.

"My regiment has got all sorts of battle honours for fighting Britain's enemies all over the world, but now we're engaged in heroic hand-to-hand combat with lambs. Their mothers have been shot but some were so frightened by the noise that they'd escaped all over the place. As we don't have any humane killers, the cleanest way of killing them is just to throw them in the river. We might be trained to kill enemy soldiers, but slitting the throat of a spring lamb, or beating its brains out with a blunt instrument, is just too much for some of the lads, so they'd rather drown them, even though it's not really as quick.

"One of my mates was detailed to stand by a pig which was giving birth. As each piglet was born and crawled away, he had to smash it with the back of a shovel. Once they'd all been born the pig was shot like all the others.

"Worst of all are the cows that have been shot but not finished off by the slaughtermen. Some are still crawling around, others are clearly still alive but unable to move. We have to beat them to death with lorry spanners or other heavy lumps of iron.

"If people knew what was really going on I think there'd be a revolution. All the animals I've seen have appeared to be quite healthy. The MAFF people say it's the only thing that can be done, but if you ask them why they can't vaccinate they all come up with different reasons, none of which sound very convincing.

Soldiers - having to 'finish off' injured cattle

"Please publicised this. The more people know what a mess this is, the sooner we can stop being unarmed slaughtermen and go back to being proper soldiers."

FOOT AND MOUTH SLAUGHTER: WHY WON'T THEY VACCINATE?

When so many expert voices are saying that mass slaughter should be replaced by mass vaccinations against a disease that has been described as "no worse than a bad dose of flu", why do the Government and the Ministry of Agriculture insist on killing hundreds of thousands, or even millions of healthy animals, including irreplaceable rare breeds and pedigrees?

1) Habit. Last century, rich landowners with pedigree herds didn't want their animals infected by beasts owned by poorer farmers. Pedigree animals were therefore exempt from slaughter, while the ordinary herds and flocks of ordinary farmers were killed off. The big landowners controlled parliament, so what they said became law, and mass slaughter – later extended to pedigree herds as well – became the accepted way to fight foot-and-mouth.

2) They don't realise times have changed. When Britain really was an island, and when we didn't import meat from countries with FMD, and when animals went to market or slaughter just a few miles from their farms, the disease was unlikely to get to this country, and didn't spread quickly even when it did. In those days, containment by slaughter worked. But nowadays, free trade rules forbid the government from banning meat imports, and EU laws have closed down most local slaughterhouses so that animals have to be transported hundreds of miles to market and slaughter. This means that the old ways of controlling FMD just don't work.

3) MAFF's 'experts' refuse to recognise that the modern vaccines now available are far better than the ones they rejected 30 years ago. As so often happens in Britain, the authorities are still fighting the last war!

4) Both MAFF and the government know that, under the economic disarmament policy known as 'free trade', Britain's farmers can't compete in the open world market with producers from other countries with lower wage and living costs, and weaker animal welfare rules. So instead of rejecting free trade and protecting Britain's agricultural industry, they want to see Britain's 250,000 independent farmers replaced by about 10,000 giant cereal producers, and about 10,000 giant livestock ranches.

They've been trying to reduce the number of smaller, family farmers for years, now the FMD outbreak is providing the perfect excuse to finish the job. And the leaders of the National Farmers Union – themselves big farmers – are happy to act as Judas Goats and lead their ordinary members

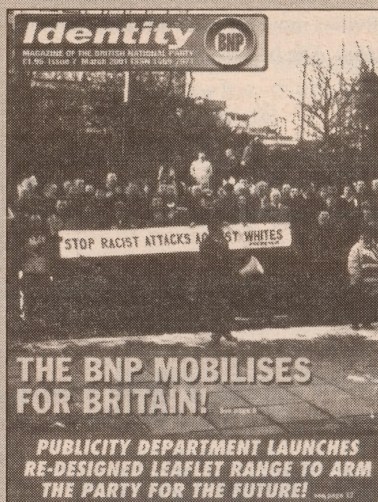

Thousands of healthy and uninfected animals are being needlessly slaughtered to slaughter at the government's hands, because they expect to be able to buy up their neighbours' land at knock-down prices.

TRAFALGAR CLUB

Trafalgar Club members make a real difference to the BNP! Its members pledge a minimum of £15 per month, in return for which they are entered into a prize draw every month, receive occasional special internal bulletins, and are entitled to attend the annual Trafalgar Club dinner free of charge.

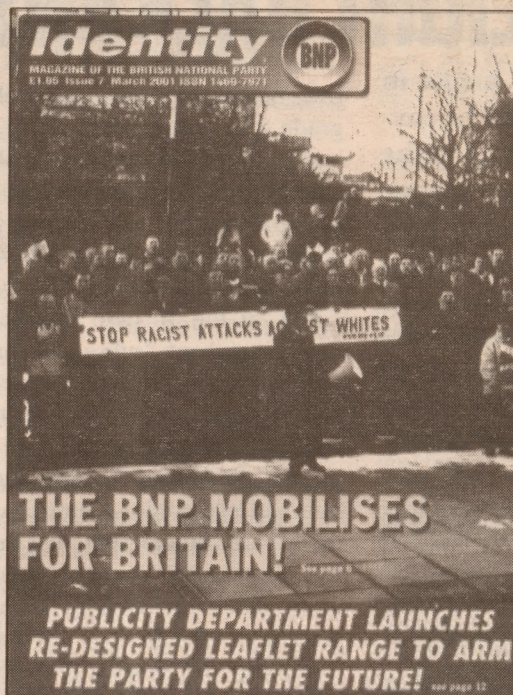

In addition, every fully paid up first year member receives a Trafalgar Club tie (or a personalised organiser in the case of ladies). The tie carries the first two 'words' of Nelson's semaphore signal before the Battle of Trafalgar – "England Expects." A fine enamel badge is being produced for second year members, and new members are very welcome too. Please telephone 0700 900 1493 to request your dues card and to join the Trafalgar Club.

BNP MAGAZINE

At last, after eighteen years, the party has its very own magazine — Identity. Identity is 16 full-colour pages, plus a four-page insert. And from now on it will appear every month, sample copies are £2.50 each post free (see page 5 for sub details) with yearly subs costing £15 payable to British National Party at: PO Box 51, Oundle PE8 6WQ

Contact your local party organisation!

THE BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY is organised into active local organisations extending over most of the United Kingdom. The party's nationwide organisation is divided into regions and thence into branches and groups. Regions are listed in capitals. Underneath are the local organisations with addresses/telephone numbers where applicable. The most firmly established are classified as branches (B). The remainder are smaller units and these are classified as groups (G). To make contact, write to the 'The Secretary' at the address given. If no address, or for details to start a new group, write to: Group Development at PO Box 1032, Woodford Green, IG8 9GN.

SPOTLIGHT BALKANS: THE HOAX THAT STARTED A WAR

Our own 'free' media in Britain might still be covering up the story, but the big Canadian newspaper the Toronto Sun has now spilled the beans about what it called "the hoax that started the war" - the alleged massacre of 45 Albanian civilians in the Kosovan village of Racak.

This was the story that gave Bill Clinton the excuse to start bombing Serbia - and allowed the mainstream media to con millions of ordinary Americans and Britons into supporting the war against the Serbs.

The victims of Racak. Or were they?

Clinton told the world on March 19, 1999: "We should remember what happened in Racak ... innocent men, women and children were taken from their homes to a gully, forced to kneel in the dirt and sprayed with gunfire." Photos circled the world. NATO bombing began March 24, and lasted 78 days.

U.S. Foreign Secretary Madeleine Albright also cited Racak where, she said, there were "dozens of people with their throats slit."

She called this the "galvanizing incident" that meant peace talks at Rambouillet were pointless, "humanitarian bombing" the only recourse.

The Times joined in the drive to make us Brits happy to allow Blair to risk our airmen's lives on bombing runs over Belgrade too, writing that victims had their eyes gouged out, heads smashed in, faces blown away at close range, all "farmers, workers, villagers, aged 12-74, men, women, children."

But, as the Toronto Sun has now pointed out, "subsequent investigations by German, French and American correspondents and by human rights and peace groups, including the anti-war International Action Centre and the Liberty Foundation, that the Racak massacre seems an enormous, albeit effective, hoax perpetrated by the Kosovo Liberation Army to persuade the U.S. and NATO to attack the Serbs.

The goal was independence for Kosovo, possibly leading to the dream of a Greater Albania." It turns out that all the bodies found at the alleged 'massacre' site were in fact KLA terrorists who had been killed in fighting with the Serbian security forces.

Forensic evidence has since proven that most of the 45 Racak dead had been shot at long range, not execution-style.

Corpses tested positive with residue of gunpowder on their hands, indicating they had been firing weapons.

No ammunition or shell casings were found near the bodies, where they had supposedly been massacred, nor were there pools of blood.

The truth is that the KLA took the bodies there after they had been killed in battle, stripped them of their uniforms and insignia, and used them to con the West into bombing Serbia.

In conclusion, the Toronto Sun pointed out a few home truths about 'ethnic cleansing' as well: "At the end of World War II, the population of Kosovo was 50-50 Serb and Albanian. By 1999 it was 90% Albanian. Today, it's close to 96%. Over 50 years, who's been 'ethnically cleansed'?"

Today, Albanians in Macedonia are using arguments similar to those used against Serbs in Kosovo - prejudice, being frozen from jobs, discriminated against.

Rarely mentioned are maps produced in Albania that show

The KLA, an army hell bent on Albanian expansion not only Kosovo, but parts of Macedonia and Montenegro as part of 'Greater Albania.' "It doesn't take an Einstein to realize that the U.S., NATO and western media have been conned and manipulated into supporting an aggressive exercise in nation-building that is not likely to be resolved peaceably.

NATO's beleaguered soldiers are innocents caught in a Balkan quagmire, thanks to a blundering, myopic, vainglorious political leader."

Of course, they mean Clinton, but they could just as easily have been talking about his British poodle, Tony Blair.

"NATIONALISM IS ALSO A GIRL'S CONCERN"

Women from all walks of life now make up a third of the membership of some nationalist groups in Germany as they attempt to cement their power base, boost their social acceptance and move out of the extremes into the mainstream.

This was the conclusion of a feature in the Guardian on 4th April. Statistics from a number of states indicate an explosion in female membership among groups campaigning against multiculturalism. The Thuringian branch of the BVD, Germany's security service, which monitors anti-Establishment groups, said that in less than a year the proportion of women in nationalist organisations in the eastern state had risen from 20% to 30%.

ADVANTAGE

"It appears that women are increasingly finding emancipation in the scene and taking advantage of this," said Rüdiger Hesse, a political police spokesman in Lower Saxony.

In an attempt to attract young modern women, the Young National Democrats (JN), the youth wing of the German nationalist party (NPD) which is represented in parliament, has sought to turn the traditional approach on its head, recently coining the phrase: "Nationalism is also a girl's concern." It reports a "significant increase" in interest as a result. This week a documentary by Süddeutsche TV visited Ehrenhausen in western Germany where 18% of people vote for 'far-right' - parties, and where Doris Zutt runs Patriotentreff - Patriots' Haunt - one of 50 similar fashion boutiques in Germany for nationally-inclined girls. On sale were cropped T-shirts bearing slogans such as "My Boyfriend is German".

GAINING IMPORTANCE

Very few women hold top positions in far-right groups, but as they gain importance behind the scene - organising events, promoting via the internet, distributing leaflets, and taking on the all-important role of child-rearers - there are signs that those days are not far off.

Rainer Fromm, one of the producers of the documentary, said the women in the far right were not all from underprivileged backgrounds.

"They are lawyers, nurses, librarians and pianists, from working class and middle class backgrounds, broken and stable homes."

The largest growth in interest was among 15- to 25-year-olds, he added. One of the new breed is 22-year-old Melanie from Dorsten, north of Essen, who since joining the NJ six years ago has earned a reputation as one of the movers and shakers of the far right. She writes for the NPD's publications, helps to organise events and runs a "no to multiculturalism" website.

The Guardian hack admitted that Melanie "does not fit the skinhead mould" in which liberals like to pigeon-hole young patriots.

"The question of protecting nationality is also an issue for women, and I want to have a role in that, and for that I can dress as I like," she told the paper. Melanie marks what worried multiculturalists regard as "a dangerous shift in the far right."

MORE ATTRACTIVE

"These women are strengthening the scene," said Robert Bihler, political police spokesman in Bavaria. "They make it more attractive to other women and men, and far more mainstream."

In the past, women have followed boyfriends and husbands into far-right groups, but the recruitment trend has since changed considerably, another worried liberal academic told the Guardian: "They enter the groups through girlfriends or purely out of personal conviction, and they find a scene which allows them to express themselves."

Dear Sir: Thank you for your continued email updates on party activity - it's good to see so much going on. Recently my mother was admitted into Charing Cross hospital for an operation. When the patients arrived on the ward Monday morning they were systematically told their operations had been cancelled or were talked out of having them altogether. My mother was kept in for two days unable to eat or drink until the promise of an operation was cancelled. I took my mother out there on Tuesday evening after she had spent two days and one night in awaiting treatment. While she was there, my mother saw many foreign patients, especially

Middle Eastern types, being treated and given operations. It was so obvious that she wondered whether the large number of foreign doctors were treating their own people first! Needless to say, my family have always paid their National Insurance contributions in decades of work and taxpaying. What a state! Susie, London

Dear Sir: Following an incident when my son expressed reluctance to spend yet another Religious Education lesson studying Islam, he was put into isolation at school and I was duly informed of his Politically Incorrect crime. The bulk of my verbal reply to the Deputy Head who told me about it is unprintable, but I also wrote to the Headmaster. I quoted various passages from the Bible which showed that the teaching of Islam is unacceptable to real Christians.

Just as concerns about traffic congestion were recently used in Oldham as a way of stopping a proposed mosque, so the use of traditional Christian arguments might be helpful in opposing the increasing Islamisation of our schools.

Best wishes
Derek Felton, Oldham

Last week my husband and myself were lucky enough to attend the South of Britain rally.

We would like to thank everyone who was involved in arranging the day. After listening to the speakers and seeing so many like minded people, we feel privileged and proud to have been part of the rally. Well done to everyone!

Mr & Mrs McCully South East London

Sir: I am not a member of the BNP but I've seen your website about foot and mouth and I just wanted to write and thank you for your support for, and understanding of, the farming community. I'm a smallholder with a rare breed flock in Westmoreland (I still don't use the modern local government term 'Cumbria') and, like nearly everyone else with rare breeds and small flocks, I'm disgusted by the National Farmers Union bigwigs sucking up to the Government and the Boys With Jobs at MAFF by saying that everyone wants their animals slaughtered and replaced by compensation money.

We don't want slaughter and blood money; we want to be able to buy vaccines and keep our sheep.

The rare breeds in particular are irreplaceable and slaughter is outdated, cruel, unnecessary and a burden on the public purse.

June H.
Internet letter

The photos on your website of the Red-White-and-Blue festival are excellent! Anyone thinking that your party is full of thugs and morons only has to look at the pictures of little children playing on bouncy castles, and ordinary men playing football. They blow it all away! No doubt your website receives the usual media blackout from the liberal-fascists in the media.

John Holly

SWISS SAY 'NO' TO THE EURO!

The Swiss have overwhelmingly voted against joining the European Union in a referendum in March. Apart from their independent and secret banking sector, the Swiss are also famous for giving the world the Cuckoo clock but, as the referendum has shown, the Swiss are definitely not a nation of birdbrains when it comes to making important political decisions about their nation's future independence and freedom.

The 'No' vote against joining the EU was an astounding 78 per cent. Furthermore, anti-EU sentiment is so widespread in Switzerland that the Swiss government now has an uphill battle to convince the electorate to approve of new plans to start talks in 2004, about joining the EU in 2010 at the earliest.

One of the main reasons why the 'No' vote was so high was because many Swiss voters were angry about the way the EU was seen to be interfering in the sovereign affairs of their neighbouring country Austria, over the progress of Joerg Haider's Freedom Party, with threats of trade sanctions and isolation against Austria by the Euro-fascists. Freedom says: "Why has there been so little media reporting of the Swiss referendum and their overwhelming rejection of joining the EU?

If the Swiss had voted 'Yes' We wouldn't have heard the last of it!" Meanwhile, the pro-Labour think tank, The Institute for Public Policy Research, said that Tony Blair's strategy of not making the euro an election issue is "naïve and decidedly undemocratic."

This is Labour PR 'double talk' for: "For goodness sake Tony, don't play into William Hague's phoney anti-EU stance or Labour may lose some of its 'Cuckoo' voters!"

A massive 78% of the Swiss people voted against EU slavery and yes to national freedom!

NATIONALIST SUCCESS IN FRENCH MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS!

The French nationalist parties, the Front National (FN), led by Jean-Marie Le Pen, and the Mouvement National Republicain (MNR), led by Bruno Mégret, have scored excellent results in the recent French Municipal elections!

Despite all the doom and gloom from establishment journalists predicting the destruction of the Right in these elections, thanks to their disunity, the nationalist keep all their towns, and only lost the fourth, Toulon, thanks to the FN elected Mayor, Jean-Marie Le Chavallier joining the DVD.

The MNR in particular did very well, picking up scores of over 20% in more than thirty French towns, and putting up 400 lists, more than the united FN managed to do last time! The FN managed to put up lists in 111 towns, and also scored some excellent results, in particular getting their man in Orange, who is the sitting Mayor, re-elected with 60% of the vote.

The MNR scored more in these elections, than the united FN managed to do in the last Municipal elections. Overall, the patriotic Right have shown that when they finally get their act together (something now in sight with the retirement of Le Pen in little over a year), and re-unite, there will be nothing to stop them!

Despite the terrible split of two years ago, and the shattered dream of many patriotic Frenchmen, there now seems new hope. Worried liberal journalists are now warning about the re-emergence of the French Right in a more "insidious" form.

LAUNCH OF WHITE VICTIMS' SUPPORT GROUP

The BNP has alunched a new organisation to champion equal rights for British whites!

FAIR - Families Against Immigrant Racism, is a grass roots white victims' support group, dedicated to providing organisational help, and legal advice, and to lending an ear to whites who make up the forgotten majority of victims of racist crime.

Good progress has already been made, an introduction brochure has been produced, and there is an excellent website with full online resources, ranging from how to set up a local FAIR unit, to localised leaflets, contacts, petitions, campaign tips, and much more.

FAIR doesn't disagree with non-whites forming associations to lobby for their rights, as is often the case. FAIR exists to redress the balance, and make whites who are the victims of race crime heard. As the saying goes: "It is the squeaky hinge that gets the oil."

LAND AND PEOPLE RE-ACTIVATED

With the Foot and Mouth crisis engulfing Britain's countryside, and with new volunteers ready to take the helm, the BNP has announced the re-activation of our rural affairs circle, Land and People.

The launch of a new 'flash' website - accompanied by a nationwide campaign by BNP activists against the totally unscientific mass-culling policy of the Labour government and the dispatching of lightning press releases - has seen

Land and People get back on its feet, working as the only group in the country opposing the real forces of rural destruction: free-trade and a Politically Correct establishment hell bent on destroying British farming and making us more dependant than ever on foreign imports. The BNP has received some publicity from our existing efforts, with your help we will achieve so much more!

Those interested in this new initiative please get in touch!

FOOT-AND-MOUTH? CRISIS FOR FARMERS? SAINSBURY'S DOESN'T GIVE A DAMN!

Anti-foot-and-mouth campaigners have asked Sainsbury's Head Office to approve the installation of disinfectant mist in their stores as part of the campaign to prevent the highly contagious virus being spread on the boots and shoes of shoppers travelling in from rural areas. They have refused!

Despite the fact that Sainsbury's have made millions by squeezing farmers' prices down, and putting their own prices up, Sainsbury's can't even be bothered to donate a couple of bottles of disinfectant in a gesture of solidarity with our desperate farmers and their families.

SOUTH EAST LONDON BNP LAUNCHES GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN WITH GOOD MEETING

South East London British National Party launched their General Election campaign on the 27th March, with an excellent meeting featuring National Chairman Nick Griffin.

It was chaired by BNP Director of Publicity, Paul Golding, who started off the meeting with a round up of the latest party news and details of recent progress to about 45 people present.

He first introduced the two organisers in South East London, new Bexley Organiser James Seadon, and Lewisham & Bromley BNP organiser Richard Brook who spoke of initiative in their local areas.

The theme of the meeting being the General Election, Mr. Golding then spoke about the party's strategy, comparing two historical battles, the first being the way in which the French Emperor Napoleon managed to annihilate the superior Austrian and Russian Imperial armies at the battle of Austerlitz, by using intelligent tactics.

He then described the battle of the Somme, in which waves and waves of brave British troops were sent over the top to be massacred by machine gun fire.

He said that in the past, "nationalist electoral strategy had often been similar to that employed at the Battle of the Somme, where huge resources would be wasted fighting elections that we couldn't hope to win. By contrast the party is now using intelligent tactics to get success. Like Napoleon at Austerlitz, by using your brain you can overcome amazing odds."

He then introduced the two prospective candidates, BNP stalwart Colin Smith, who is standing in Bexley, and Lewisham & Bromley Secretary Barry Roberts who is standing in Lewisham East. Both gave very brief talks on why they are standing for the BNP.

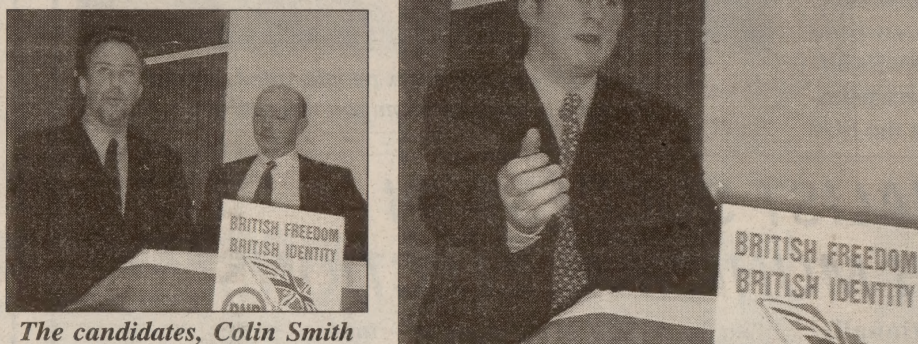

Mr Golding called a short collection, which raised £250, and then a quick break.

He then introduced National Chairman Nick Griffin, who spoke for an hour.

Nick described the many ways in which the government turns a blind eye to the consequences of the policies they pursue, such as immigration, and the resultant civil strife, crime and exotic diseases that it brings with it. He ended with a call to those present to follow in the footsteps of our great ancestors, who wouldn't have sat on their backsides should Britain have faced such a peril during their time!

GRIFFIN AT LEEDS UNIVERSITY!

Despite the fact that a huge turnout of 'bussed in' leftists - including the racist Searchlight thug and conman Ray Hill - led to the Leeds University students' union maintaining its anti-free speech 'No Platform' policy, patriotic students in Leeds are still determined to secure the right of free speech for all. In the latest step in this campaign, they arranged for BNP Chairman Nick Griffin to speak on campus to an audience of 20 supporters of freedom of expression. Despite threats by Red fascists, the meeting went ahead in a lecture room without incident. This is the first time that a nationalist speaker has addressed a meeting inside a British university for nearly twenty years. Once again the BNP has stood up for free speech!

LEWISHAM & BROMLEY BRANCH GEARING UP!

While the General Election overall isn't that important for the BNP, the real purpose of standing in those seats that will be contested is to prepare the ground work for the council elections next year. Preparations are already underway, and especially in Lewisham!

Under dynamic local Organiser Richard Brook, Lewisham & Bromley BNP have already designed all their leaflets, including 20,000 four page, full-colour brochures for distribution, and the free-post leaflets.

The candidate is Branch Secretary Barry Roberts, a long standing nationalist of many years. It was in the late 70s when Barry's mother stood for nationalism and obtained the highest vote in South East London.

The local Branch obtained some excellent publicity (re-produced below) in The Catford & Hither Green Newsreel, a popular local news-sheet.

With high activity rates, excellently produced publicity material, good leadership and increased membership, Lewisham & Bromley BNP is firmly on the map as one of the premier branches of the British National Party.

DEWSBURY

Dewsbury BNP are getting a remarkably good response to a petition against anti-white racist attacks in the town. The petition team have found that they can collect in excess of 300 signatures per session. In addition, they are equipped with a good quality portable tape recorder and have found a number of members of the public willing to talk about their experiences of anti-white racism and to have what they have to say recorded. Some of these brief interviews will be used in various ways during the election campaign. Watch this space!

OLDHAM

Oldham BNP scored a major victory when their campaign against an application for planning permission for yet another mosque in the town resulted in complete victory for the white residents who opposed the proposal. Oldham activists spent hours recording traffic flows in the area, providing evidence as to its unsuitability for a mosque which was used to great effect by Mick Treacy when he spoke up for local residents at the planning meeting. The application was thrown out by an overwhelming majority, the successful BNP campaign got very good local press coverage, and a member of the public thanked the British National Party on local radio.

VOTE BARRY ROBERTS - BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY!

A message from local man Barry Roberts:

With the Tories in chaos and the Lib-Dems in his pocket, the ever-smiling Tony Blair and his Cabinet can afford to look smug - they do not suffer from rising crime or the ever-increasing job culture. With his private security, Blair is unaffected by the appalling state of our demoralised Metropolitan Police. Blair and his cronies' high incomes allow them to enjoy a luxurious lifestyle while the elderly can barely afford the essentials. The doors to our small island have been opened to millions of immigrants and so-called asylum seekers, even though we do not possess the space or resources to cater for them. We are under siege in our own land while politicians pander to all and sundry, but leave ordinary Britons to fend for ourselves. The traitors and con artists in Parliament have let us down once too often. IT'S TIME TO ACT.

GREAT GLASGOW BNP MEETING!

Around 40 Scottish activists attended the first Glasgow BNP meeting this year on Sunday 18th March. The speakers on the evening were BNP Deputy Chairman and Scottish Regional Organiser Scott McLean, who chaired the meeting, and Deryk Smith, Glasgow BNP Organiser.

Scott McLean kicked off the meeting, informing those in attendance that Glasgow Branch meetings will be taking place on a more regular basis, with larger put on the events surrounding an interview that Scott McLean gave to the Scotsman newspaper.

Deryk Smith was next to speak. He briefly mentioned the new leg-getting one particular ward in Glasgow with the aim of fielding a candidate in 2003 at the council elections.

Resources are being consolidated in this area where we have established an effective leaflet team and have just set up a planning committee whose function is to gather local information and feedback, a canvassing team is next to be established.

The need to conduct focussed campaigning with the determination to succeed was stressed.

Finally, there was a question and answer session, where Scottish stalwart Steve Cartwright called on all to support the activities proposed by Scott and Deryk. Scott closed the meeting by summarising that there are plenty of positive activities for Scottish activists and supporters to be involved in; there is no excuse for idleness. At the end of the meeting a good collection of £110 was raised.

rally type meetings also being held about every 3 months. Recent press coverage in Scotland was discussed, with emphasis being isolation regarding donations to the party. Deryk continued by informing the audience that the BNP in Glasgow have been tar-

THREE NEW GROUPS FORMED!

Director of Group Development, Tony Lecomber, initiated three meetings in Sussex during March.

This is the result of the growing number of enquiries that have been coming from this area in the last few months, which suggested that the time was right for a push to establish an organised BNP presence in the county. Small meetings were duly organised in Eastbourne, Crawley and Worthing. As a direct result three groups of the party have now been officially formed in Sussex.

Eastbourne BNP will also cover Bexhill and Hastings; Worthing BNP will also cover Brighton, and W. Sussex BNP will cover both Crawley and Horsham. It is likely that separate groups will emerge in Brighton and Horsham given more support in the area - now inevitable given organised activity for the first time ever by the party.

Sussex, densely populated, with never a BNP group before now has been ripe for development for some while. It's a gap we're pleased to see plugged!

GUNTHER DECKERT AT CROYDON

Croydon British National Party was very fortunate to host a meeting on the 8th March, when the guest speaker was the intrepid German Prisoner of Conscience, Gunther Deckert.

Deckert had been locked away for over five years for "Thought Crimes", and was released only last October. The meeting was chaired by Croydon stalwart Mike Barns.

First up was Richard Edmonds, who spoke of Gunther's courage while in jail, and his refusal to capitulate to the wicked authorities.

The second introduction to the honoured international guest was given by John Tyndall, who praised Herr Deckert for resilience under immense pressure on both family and himself in "democratic" Germany.

Heer Deckert then took the stage and addressed those present with a rousing speech, thanking Courageous Gunther Deckert, a "thought" criminal!

the BNP for organising protests outside the German Embassy last year in support of his release from jail, and in support of the NPD, a patriotic German party that the German establishment is best and most exhilarating meetings South London patriots have seen for years.

BURNLEY BNP

MAKING THE NEWS!

The highly successful Burnley & Pendle Branch of the British National Party has been in the local news much recently!

Under dynamic local Organiser, Steve Smith, Burnley BNP is one of the fastest growing BNP branches, attracting 80 local people to their last meeting!

Steve and his local activists, managed to obtain over 1,000 signatures in a petition against animal cruelty, presented to the local Only Foals and Horses Sanctuary, and Burnley Dog Rescue. Steve is standing in Burnley in the General Election, as is former North West Regional Organiser Chris Jackson, who is standing in Pendle. All things are going in Burnley and Pendle BNP!

TESTING TIMES A petition with 1,000 signatures against testing on animals and ritual animal slaughter has been presented by prospective Burnley parliamentary candidate for the British National Party Steve Smith. He gave the petition to the Only Foals and Horses Sanctuary and it will be sent to their head offices to be passed on to the RSPCA. Steve, who runs the Heritage Centre in St James Street, Burnley, is seen handing the petition to Enid Pomfret (centre), of the sanctuary and Margaret Holt, of the dog rescue centre. He said: "We are against the testing of products on animals and also against the ritual slaughter of animals, both of which we feel should be outlawed because they are cruel."

ANGER OVER BNP LEAFLET

HOME Secretary Jack Straw is being sent a copy of an alleged "racist" leaflet being put through letter boxes in Burnley.

The British National Party pamphlet was passed to Burnley's MP Mr Peter Pike by Brunshaw councillor Andrew Holder.

"It could be said they are stirring up racial issues," said Mr Pike, who said the Labour Party would be keeping copies of all BNP literature distributed in Burnley in the run-up to the general election.

Coun. Holder was so incensed by the content that he has taken one of the hand-outs to the police.

"There is no room for racism in Britain and this type of leaflet can only incite racial hatred," said Coun. Holder. "I find it very, very offensive."

By BARRY AYRTON

He went on: "People in the area have told me they are disgusted. There are a number of Asians and black people who live in Brunshaw and we all get on with each other. If it got in the wrong hands, this leaflet could stir up racial unrest," said Coun. Holder.

But Mr Steve Smith, the BNP's prospective parliamentary candidate for Burnley in the coming general election, denied the leaflet - which he said was being distributed across the town - was racist. "We feel we are simply expressing genuinely felt concerns of the Burnley electorate about the escalation of immigration and asylum seeking applications which the short-changed and hard-pressed tax payers of this town are having to pay for."

"All this is while our Labour dominated council is considering closing facilities such as Gannow Baths."

"We feel we have the right - and being patriots the duty - to speak out and will continue to do so whether Mr Holder likes it or not," he said.

A spokesman for Burnley police said they had received one of the leaflets and were looking into the matter.

Of course, the 'anger' only comes from the self-serving politicians of Lib-Lab-Con!

JOIN US!

Britain is approaching the final hour of decision. Will we regain our political freedom, or will our institutions and sovereignty vanish in a federal European empire? Will we start protecting our industries from cut-throat foreign competition, or will we become a low wage historical theme park for wealthy American and Japanese tourists? Will we find the strength to stem and reverse the tide of non-white immigration, or will we become a minority in our own land within 50 years?

These are the choices facing us today. You should know that our party isn't like all the others. We are not here to flatter and deceive, to lie and promise everything to everyone. We exist for one purpose only: to save Britain and the British and to build a future for the millions of young British children left on the scrapheap by the main parties. If you do nothing, you automatically become part of the forces driving us to political, economic and ethnic destruction. But times are changing. Fortunately, more and more decent people are deciding not to be part of the problem, and to be part of the drive to put things right again and to save Britain and the British. That's why we find more and more people like you joining the British National Party, the only radical patriotic party in Britain standing up for the British people. All you have to do more to find out more is to ring 0700 900 2671 and ask for a free, no commitment info pack! You have to make a choice. Make the right one!

What we stand for

In the British National Party

- A massive expansion of Freedom and Democracy to roll back the erosion of our traditional freedoms and truly reflect the wishes of the people; the adoption of popular referenda & hi-tech direct democracy.
- The establishment of a government that puts British interests first.
- An end to immigration and the scandal of bogus asylum-seekers flooding Britain. The use of the billions now wasted in foreign aid to fund generous 'Homeward Bound' schemes to encourage immigrants to return to their lands of origin.
- British withdrawal from the European Union: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties, and no monetary union.
- The use of the £1.8 million per hour we at present pay the EU to fund the restoration of an effective National Health Service and proactive measures to produce a healthier population in the first place.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources including the mass media.
- Protection of British jobs and industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- The introduction of tax incentives and other policies designed to ensure that the City finances British industry rather than foreign competitors.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum self-sufficiency in food; also the restoration of the fishing industry by protection of our traditional fishing grounds.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people — the protection of our countryside; a ban on greenfield-site house building except in cases of genuine local need; an end to field trials of genetically modified crops.
- A crack-down on crime and tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty for child killers and terrorists.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and an end to the 'trendy' teaching methods which have failed our children so badly.
- An alternative defence strategy based on the principle of armed neutrality; no British blood should be shed in conflicts which do not involve vital British interests. The restoration of the County Regiment system and reversal of the defence cuts which have weakened our Armed Forces and cost thousands of jobs.
- The crushing of the IRA and other terrorist groups, the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and the establishment of a devolved, non-sectarian parliament in Northern Ireland.
- A return to healthy moral values and policies aimed at strengthening the family and community. Tough penalties for corruption in public life.
